Website Family Photograph Release Form

Clover Hill Reformed Church of Hillsborough, New Jersey has recently updated its website—www.cloverhillchurch.org and Facebook page. The purpose of our church’s website and Facebook page is to provide information about the church and publicize church events for our church family. The website and Facebook page will also be used as a multimedia tool to introduce prospective members of the church to the inclusive, loving, and fun nature of our church.

In order to properly convey the spirit of our church, we wish to share photographs of our congregation and friends attending various events lead by our consistory and church members.

By signing this form I hereby give Clover Hill Reformed Church (“the Church”) explicit permission and authorization to use any photographs of me and my child(ren) taken during church events on the Church’s website—www.cloverhillchurch.org and/or Facebook page. By agreeing to the use of pictures of me and my child(ren), I release and hold the Church harmless from any and all claims relating thereto.

By signing this release and hold harmless agreement, I declare that I am aware and understand that the Church may share photographs of me and/or my child(ren) on the church’s website and/or Facebook page for the exclusive purpose of promoting church services and events.

By signing this release and hold harmless agreement, I declare that I am aware and understand the Church will adhere to the following guidelines:

- Photographs of large groups of people in a public setting may be posted without express authorization.
- Personal information of photograph models will not be published; individuals will only be identified with express permission granted by this release.
- Addresses will not be published or disclosed except to identify public meeting places.
- Children’s artwork may be photographed and published online as appropriate. The identification of the child will be limited to the child’s first name and last initial.
- Any photograph that is subject to a copyright or outside ownership will be removed from the website within forty-eight (48) hours of notice.

I hereby agree and understand the above-mentioned terms and conditions of this agreement.
